Law

The Mediator's Tale

Eileen Carroll QC (Hon) and Karl Mackie CBE

Written to celebrate the 30th anniversary of CEDR's emergence as the world's leading independent disputes consultancy, it throws fresh light on the personal motivations and strategy behind a unique example of disruptive innovation in the legal system, while sharing their professional insight into how we can achieve better conflict management in our personal and professional lives.

It also has tips to help readers analyse their own experiences in conflict and dispute resolution so that they can learn from the insights of leading practitioners, while becoming familiar with a fascinating and unique lifetime's professional practice, and the diverse experiences of a leading independent institution in the field.

Hershman and McFarlane: Children Act Handbook 2021/22

Andrew McFarlane

"Essential...it is a great boon to have all these materials in one relatively small volume... this volume is a must" New Law Journal (review of a previous edition)

Specifically designed for use in court this handbook provides a single volume of key children proceedings' legislation and related guidance. It contains consolidated and fully amended texts of the Children Act 1989 and relevant provisions of the Family Procedure Rules 2010 and supplementary Practice Directions.

The handbook meets the need for a reliable, up-to-date, portable source of key children proceedings' legislation and related guidance and is invaluable to all child law practitioners, judges and social workers.

Cyber Risks and Insurance The Legal Principles

Dean Armstrong QC, Thomas Steward and Shyam Thakerar

Full of tips, case studies, tables and checklists this new title sets out the parameters of liability in respect of potential and actual cyber insurance claims and examines the significant areas where such claims will have the greatest impact.

Covering first and third party insurance, it provides the answers to questions such as: What is the extent to which a data breach can be protected or mitigated against by having suitable insurance in place? How does having insurance interplay with obligations under the GDPR? To what extent can insurance be used to safeguard driverless cars, drones and other AI-machines? How can insurance companies assist when hackers hold companies to ransom after stealing data? How can insurance assist with smart contracts on the blockchain and for potential coding errors? How can insurance mitigate against the hacking of online systems of manned ships?

Principles of International Taxation

8th edition

Lynne Oats

The book provides a clear introduction to international taxation and presents its material in a global context, explaining policy, legal issues and planning points central to taxation issues, primarily from the viewpoint of a multinational group of companies. This content is a core requirement for student reading lists at both undergraduate and post graduate level.

Fully updated to cover all new tax legislation and developments in light of the OECD BEPS project implementation, key areas to be included in this new edition are:

- changes proposed by BEPS 2.0 in relation to taxation and the digital economy, including Pillar Two and the proposed new UN Model Article 12B;
- further progress on the OECD Base Erosion and Profit Shifting implementation, including:
- an update on the implementation of BEPS recommendations including artificial avoidance of permanent establishment status and prevention of treaty abuse;
- the implementation of transfer pricing documentation and country-by-country reporting;
- multilateral instrument implementation;
- the impact of Covid-19 on international taxation;
- further developments in European direct taxation including the transparency package, directives on anti-tax avoidance and the common corporate tax base and state aid cases (Apple in particular).

Extent: 712pp ■ Pub date: Sep-21 ■ Price: £130

Irish Securities Law

Paul Egan

This new title is concerned with the securities law provisions in the Companies Act 2014 and derivative enactments, which are of most concern to listed companies and companies issuing equity and debt securities in Ireland.

It comprehensively with the legal obligations to produce a prospectus or similar document, what is in it, what are the exceptions, what information must be made available to the markets and what are the other legal consequences on companies and dealers in shares and other securities as a result of having securities admitted to listing.

Part A of the book gives an overview of the four key areas: Prospectus, Listing, Market Abuse and Transparency. It explains the structure of the law to enable non-experts to understand the law. Part B gives the legal and regulatory texts, which will be more of interest to lawyers and financiers in this area who need to be familiar with the primary law, which is not as yet readily accessible.

Irish Capital Gains Tax 2021

Tom Maguire

“Given the depth of detail, the comprehensive treatment of the subject, and the clear explanations of each area of this important tax for practising solicitors, this is undoubtedly the reference book for Irish capital gains tax.” The Law Society Gazette (review of the 2020 edition)

Provides in-depth analysis and interpretation of the law as it is applied to CGT by the Irish and UK courts as well as in Appeal Commissioners' decisions. It includes commentary on Revenue guidance, the administration of CGT as well as the computational rules and key reliefs and allowances. Topics covered range from the tax treatment of married couples, partnerships, companies and trusts to anti-avoidance.

This new edition has been updated to take account of the Finance Act 2020.

Contents include: Statutory interpretation; What is an asset; What is a disposal; Persons chargeable; Married couples and civil partnerships; Taxation of partnerships; Computational rules; Shares; Financial instruments; Debts; Trusts; Anti-avoidance; Companies; Residence; Foreign tax matters; CA 2014 transactions.

Property, Trusts and Succession

4th edition

George Gretton and Andrew Steven

Provides full coverage of the property, trusts and succession parts of the LLB syllabus in Scottish universities in one convenient volume. The relevant rules of statute and common law are surveyed and frequent examples used, making this a highly practical and accessible text.

The new fourth edition includes coverage of:

- Coronavirus: The epidemic has led to new legislation for property transactions, for instance the closure of the Land Register to paper deeds. Many of these 2020 changes are likely to prove permanent.
- New cases: Significant decisions since the 3rd edition include Reyana-Stahl Anstalt 2018 SC 406 (access to land), Ali v Serco Ltd 2020 SC 182 (eviction) Ardnamurchan Estates Ltd v MacGregor 2020 SLT (Sh Ct) 49 (prescriptive title to land) and Scottish Woodlands Ltd v Majekodunmi 2020 Hous LR 23 (upkeep of common areas).
- Impending legislation: (i) the Moveable Transactions Bill, (ii) Register of Overseas Entities Bill, (iii) the draft Register of Persons Holding a Controlled Interest in Land (Scotland) Regulations, (iv) reform of the law of real burdens (Scottish Law Commission's 2019 Report on Section 53 of the Title Conditions (Scotland) Act 2003).
